a visitor in town last Saturday.

Mr. C. Jarboe was a visitor in town on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan. Cunnham of Sibbald are visitors in town this week.

Ernie Whitman commenced work at Messrs. Scott & Co.'s, on Saturday last.

Shannon Jarboe, who was the guest of Mr. Fred. Scott over the week-end, left for Kinders-ley, Sask., on Monday morning.

Messrs. E. Mander, Jas. Leps, and Jack Nesmith left for Edmonton on Friday. After taking in the sights of the Capital City they will make a trip up to the Peace River Country.

Hi-Reverence, Father Dargan
was in town this week.

Messrs. R. A. Hennessy, F. O.
Robins and L. T. Brue of Kerri-muir were visitors in town on Saturday.

Preston Jarboe commenced work at Messrs. Scott & Co., on Monday of this week.

Mr. V. J. Blanchflower, popularly known as "Vic the Fruit Man" spent the day in town last Friday. In the evening he underwent a game of ball between the married and single men of Oyen.

Mr. J. A. McColl was a visitor in town yesterday.

Born-To Mr. and Mrs. J. Mc-Kenzie of Oyen, on Tuesday, August 10th, a son.

Mrs. T. W. Johnson and family returned to Oyen last Saturday after spending a few weeks vacation at Strausburg, Sask.

Horace King got up the other morning at 5 o'clock. What Heaux! Such is life in the suburbs.

The swimming pool is proving a great attraction these days. Car loads of enthusiasts are taken there nearly every night.

A list of the prize winners will be published in next weeks issue.

A station agent has been appointed for Sibbald and is expected there in the near future.

The first Annual Fair of the Oyen Agricultural Society took place under ideal weather conditions yesterday. At an early hour all kinds of conveyances kept coming into town, each with its quota of holiday makers, and the crowd soon reached and passed the five hundred mark.

The various committees had everything well in hand and with the exception of a slight delay in opening the exhibit tents everything went off very smoothly.

In the various departments of ladies and children's work some of the only fine exhibits were shown, but in many classes only one article was exhibited.
The interest shown in these departments augurs well for next year and it is anticipated that the entries will be doubled.

The grains, grasses, roots, vegetables etc., shown, were of a high grade and in spite of the intense heat in the tent, there was always a large number present examining the exhibits.
The majority of the exhibits were very good, but in one or two classes the samples shown made many of the visitors to the tent which they had brought some of their own stuff to show.

In the Swine and Sheep classes the exhibits were very light and the classes in cattle were not very strongly represented. In the Horse classes a good number of entries were received and considering that the past year has been a very poor one for stock, the exhibits were very good.

The poultry section as far as numbers were concerned was rather disappointing, but quality was there without doubt.

An exhaustive report on the exhibits by Mr. Felix Henley, (Judge) will be given in next week's issue.

The judging of cattle and horses took place in front of the grand stand and those who patronized the stand got a splendid view of all foot and horse races and miscellaneous sports.

A wrestling match in the evening between Connors of Excel and Stevenson of Oyen attracted a large crowd. Stevenson, was much the heavier man proved to be no match for his opponent who threw him in twenty eight minutes for the first fall and five minutes for second fall.

The wrestling match was followed by a platform dance in the Crown Lumber Yard. The night was an ideal one for open air dancing, and a large number patronized the platform.

Considering that the fair was the first effort of the Oyen Agricultural Society, the directors and officers are to be congratulated on their efforts.

A Letter from "Mac"

Unit 2, Ward 1, 5th, Southcott Gen. Hospital, Portsmouth, Eng.,
July 17th, 1915.

Dear Fred:-

Well, they did manage to hit me at last. I was hit on June the 16th, when we were fighting around La Bassee. I got a shrapnel bullet in the side of my head and another through my ear. They took the bullet out of my head a few days after I was hit, but there still seems to be something there, so I am going under another operation tomorrow. They took a piece of bone out last time, and if they take another piece out of tomorrow, I won't have much skull left. "Scouty" is in one of the hospitals at Shorncliffe. He got a pretty bad one too, but I believe he is coming around alright. "Slim" Webster got his arm shattered and a bullet thro one of his lungs, but the last I heard from him he was doing fine, although he nearly kicked the pall at first. I hope the second burst from Oyen fare better. Tom was O.K. I saw him a few days before I was hit. I didn't know him at first, for he has grown so much. I bet he weighs 185 lbs. now. I was up to about that mark myself, but I think I weigh about 125 lbs. now. You need all the extra beef you can put on in that country. You always pick about 100 lbs. on your back, between times you're on digging trenches and filling sand bags. A lot coming down to see me today so I will not finish this letter until I see if he has any news.

Business will, no doubt, be dull, but it will likely pick up in time. We cannot expect to get hold of much money when they are sending so much up in smoke over here. After this war is over there will be a great immigration to Canada, almost every British soldier I have talked with speaks of going to Canada after the war. Australia was always the favourite here, but since the last extravagant went on the rampage, Canada has taken first place, of course the Australians have done just as good as we have, but we got into it first and lost more men.

I just had a letter from Alex saying he would not come down to-day as the King and Kitchener were going to review them. Looks as if they were going to France soon.

So long now, with best regards to Mrs. Whitlock.

Your old pal,

"Mac"

Baseball Notes.

It would be difficult to find a more capable and genial field salesman than "Vic," but as a ballgame "ump," he was "fierece."

You don't mind us mentioning this fact old kid?

The players who were placed on the injured list, have pretty nearly recovered. Corless says - "ahem!" - well he gave us to understand that he preferred tennis to base ball.

The presence of a large hole between third and home was responsible for some muffled cuss words a new pair of trousers and the appearance of the "Shade of Eric Lindquist." (We say "shade" advisedly.)

Jimmy Thomson pitched pretty good ball in spots and the change for Smith in the last inning was disastrous. Smith, assisted by some errors in the field, was wallowed for five runs.

Some ball game!

Another game will be played the next time "Vic" is in town.

Canada

By Andrew Oyens.

Our land still clings to oceans broad;
We move about where hearts incline Amid the plains in northern climes
We raise the wheat and ship abroad;
While cattle sheep and swine proceed To many hungry folks in need;
And here it is our future rests
And thousands more who enter West.
Here buffaloes, they'd aften roam, Yet flocks of antelopes are found Among the ponds with willows bound;
Alas, they now appear in gloom,
While grasses of the richest kind,
Now puts the vine to horses spine,
And men with pluck their harvest reap.
The iron horse does gently lead, While down in earth, we creep and peep,
We find the coal, the gas and oil;
Which needed where the men must toil,
And next that glitters we must heed,
We may all join the trappers band,
To have the fur that braves the cold;
The fish in lakes, with trees around,
And elk and moose are making sound.
Behold, where forests proudly loom,
The pines and cedars broad and tall;
With grief must see their comrades fall,
For centuries they'd swayed aloft,
All nature's beauties sure extend From mountains to the harbours grand.
Who tries compete, with orchards neat,
We apples reap, that can't be beat.
Soil, fresh and fair, where peasants brave Build churches, schools and dearest homes;
While loyal to the country's throne,
Perform the task our duties crave Inheritance from days of yore
When pioneers first came ashore
The lot they'd choose, we still maintain,
The deeds, which nations laws proclaim.
From mountains waste, great waters stream, Sweet southern wind old borons wean,
Then, far away the polar bear,
He sits and ponders why, up there,
The sun don't set, and yet arsons
But does not feel like to propose, Still, tries to play the blues in case;
Though, wonder where our noise will cease.

FIRST ANNUAL FAIR

There is always a certain amount of criticism, no matter how well a fair is conducted there always seems room for improvement. Those in charge of the Oyen fair have profited by this year's experience and will be in a position to conduct next year's fair on a bigger and better scale.

A complete list of winners in all classes of exhibits, and all races will be given in next week's issue.

For the pupil who received the greatest number of marks in each district in Alberta, His Royal Highness, The Duke of Connaught offered a gold medal. ## Ball Game Married Men vs. Single.

A ball game played on the diamond last Monday between the married men and the single men of the town furnished considerable amusement. The married men took a lead at the start and continued to pile up the score until they were six runs in the lead when their opponents went in to bat for the last inning. With two men out and none on bases a batting rally was started by the single men and five runs were scored.

FINAL SCORE.

Married Men	11
Single Men	10

The game was umpired to the dissatisfaction of all concerned by Vic, The Fruit Man.

Taylor.—That a vote be extended to J. A. Waterhouse for use of room and furniture which was highly appreciated by the whole Council.

Adlington.—That we adjourn to meet in Oyen, on October 6th, 1915 at 10.30 a.m.
